Nested beneath the Ta' Dbiegi Hill one finds Ta' Dbiegi Crafts Village, formerly a British Military barracks. It is a complex of different workshops manufacturing heightened artisan pieces. Each shop has got its own workshop combined so you can see and follow step by step how the crafts are made. Amongst others one can find, Gozo Glass, metal works, silver filigree, stone, lace, woollens, all kinds of souvenirs, painting, art, pottery, ceramics and local delicacies.

It's a place that offers a restaurant where people visiting can sit and sample some of the local dishes, coffee and cakes.

On presentation of the leaflet, shops are willing to give reductions.

Please come down, don't miss it, we'll give you a warm welcome.
